

Outstanding Woman

Alana Scott

Alana is the Founder and President of the Women's Education and Leadership League (WELL), an organization providing physical, emotional and financial wellness to women of all ages and backgrounds. WELL offers community workshops, informational presentations and other events emphasizing women's empowerment. Alana is a First Vice President at Raymond James specializing in providing financial advice and support to women going through divorce. Currently, she serves on the Board of Directors for Court

Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) and El Concilio. Alana was named one of the Modesto Bee's top 20 under 40, is a member of the 2017-18 Leadership Modesto class and was a 2016 La Raza Award recipient for her financial literacy work with underserved women.