

Outstanding Woman

Lisa Mantarro-Moore

Lisa Mantarro-Moore has a dedicated career of serving the public in a variety of capacities. Professionally, Lisa served as Deputy Chief of Staff for U.S. Congressional Representative Dennis Cardoza and is currently the District Director for State Representative Adam Gray. Lisa has had her own public service career as a Ceres City Council Member and Vice Mayor. She is active in a variety of service organizations including Soroptimist International, Modesto Rotary and the Latino Community Roundtable. Lisa promotes her hometown of Ceres as the Chairperson of the Ceres Street Faire and her work with the Whitmore Mansion Foundation. Lisa lends her expertise in community leadership to Habitat for Humanity and the Stanislaus Family Justice Center, serving as Board President for both organizations.